

There is something
I can do about it.

The hardest thing about fighting rape is the feeling of shame that many survivors feel.

By breaking the silence, we mean to break that shame.

Come by any time to listen at the 24-HOUR READING of sexual assault survivors' stories. TUESDAY APRIL 19th at 12:00PM, until noon the next day in City Hall Park.

VOLUNTEER to READ. Call or e-mail Lani, (917) 855-8338, or speakout@nycagainstrape.org
